NEBRASKA JUDGE

NOW ENDORSES IT

Hon. B. F. Whittington Has Gained Twenty Pounds by Taking Tanlac—Wants to Help Others.

One of the latest additions to the long list of prominent men in public life who have endorsed Tanlac is the name of Hon. B. F. Whittington, judge of the Rolston Court, South Omaha, Nebraska. In relating his experience with the medicine, Judge Whittington said:

"The results I have obtained from Tanlac seem wonderful to me. Before I began taking it, my health was broken in many ways. My liver was all out of fix, was habitually constipated and bilious. I was so frightfully dizzy most of the time that I could not stoop over for fear of falling. My kidneys were out of order and I had fearful pains in the small of my back. I could eat, but my food did me no good. Sleep failed to rest me and I felt tired and worn out all the time. I had been in this condition for a year and was becoming badly worried, as nothing seemed to reach my case.

"I had fallen off twenty pounds in weight as a result of my troubles, but I have gained it all back by using Tanlac and have never felt better in my life. I felt like a new man before I finished my first bottle. I took five and now I haven't an ache or pain and am feeling great. I eat like a farm hand, sleep like a log and get up in the morning feeling fine. I gladly give this statement for what it may be worth to others who are trying to find relief."

Tanlac is sold in Columbus by S. B. Street, and other leading druggists everywhere.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Tombigbee Lodge No. 12, Knights of Pythias, Castle Hall, Columbus, Miss.

Resolutions passed by Tombigbee Lodge, No. 12, K. of P., on the death of Brother Gid. D. Harris:

Gideon D. Harris is Dead! His work is done. We sometimes speak of the silent tribute of Tears; why should we disguise the matter; the simple truth is that our own deep sense of loss is the very tribute we can pay to him who has gone from us.

We sometimes call death the Great Leveler; and so it is. But death is also the Great Revealers. Now that the long and honorable career of service of his beautiful and tender love of home and family, and his conspicuous and courageous Pythian fidelity is brought to a close, we realize as never before, how blessed we have been in his presence and association with us, and how great is the loss we suffer. But here, at last, is Nature's final decree in Equity. The wrongs of time are redressed. Injustice is expiated; the irony of fate is refuted; the unequal distribution of wealth, honor, capacity, pleasure and opportunity, which makes life such an inexplicable tragedy, ceases in the realm of death.

Our brother Harris at the time of his death had been a Pythian for more than a Quarter of a Century. His unselfish and splendid life of Humility, speaks for itself and all who knew him are familiar with it. DUTY, then HEAVEN; by a beautiful necessity does not the one lead always to the other? When we know that to live is Christ then, also, we know that to die is to gain. It is then, for ourselves, that we mourn, knowing our great loss while he has ascended to his father and our father, to his God and our God. We love to think of our brother in his family, in his daily contact with his fellows; and to wonder at the perfection of the human qualities he possessed in such attractive form.

"He was a man, take him all for all."

"We shall not look upon his like again."

Now when one who, as did our departed brother Harris, has come into the World richly endowed, when he has trained and disciplined his mind and submitted all to the Father of our Spirits, when man has unsparringly given himself for others, and has counted not his own life dear unto himself if only he may work the way of him who sent him while yet it is day, and when at last his every thought has not been for self alone, but for others, why should such a one be forgotten?

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me the Crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give to me at that Day." And can we doubt that even now the liberated Spirit of such a man has heard the approving words: "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the Joy of the Lord."

And Now, Whereas: It has pleased the Almighty and Supreme Ruler of the Universe, in his Infinite Wisdom and Grace to remove from our Castle Hall and from the World, our esteemed and well beloved friend and brother,

GIDEON D. HARRIS, when has for so many years sustained with us a genuine fraternal relationship in our Lodge room; who has maintained that high standard of citizenship approached only by the Knights of his high and noble character; who has himself maintained at all times and under all circumstances a character unblemished and untarnished, and a reputation above reproach; a brother who we know has been filled with the love of Charity and now that to the River that marks the shore he holds the Golden Key which opens the palace of Eternal Life.

Now Therefore, Be it Resolved, By Tombigbee Lodge No. 12, Knights of Pythias, that in the death of our brother and friend, Gideon D. Harris, who passed from this life Beyond on the 4th day of September, 1919, being then in the 55th year of his life, and in the 25th year of his Pythianism, we have sustained the loss of a friend and brother whose friendship and fellowship it was an honor and a pleasure to enjoy; that

We now humbly but cheerfully bear testimony to his many virtues, to his unquestioned Honor, nobility of Character and stainless Life; that we offer to his loving and bereaved widow, family and saddened friends and brethren, over whom sorrow has hung her sable mantle, our heartfelt condolence, and we pray that Infinite Goodness may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts and inspire them with the consolation that Hope in the Great Hereafter and faith in the Great God give them comfort in the shadow of the Grave; and now, we commend,

His soul to him who gave it

God lead it to its long repose, its Glorious Rest!

And tho' the Warrior's sun has set, its light shall linger 'round us yet, Bright, Radiant, Blest."

Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in both Columbus Papers, a copy thereof be properly engrossed and presented to the widow of our deceased friend and brother, and that a copy be spread upon the Minutes of this Lodge.
